The Center Line Library offers a wide variety of programs for all ages each week. Visit our website or Facebook page for the calendar and more details. Here are a few highlights:

Awaken Your Inner Storyteller—Weds. August 8 at 6 PM

In this highly interactive, fun filled two-hour workshop, Judy guides participants through a series of exercises that bring cherished memories to life and capture family tales before they disappear. Beginning with a list of memory joggers and a imaginary "snapshot," participants work with partners to create stories for stage, memoir or just around the kitchen table.

Through Her Eyes: Women Photographers—Weds., August 15 at 6 PM

This talk will introduce you to the impact of art photography by some of the leading women artists in the 19th and 20th centuries. Presented by a DIA docent.

Albert Kahn's Architectural Legacy: The Ubiquitous Mr. Kahn—Thursday, September 13 at 7 PM

In the first half of the 20th Century, Detroit architect Albert Kahn revolutionized the design of industrial buildings around the world. He also influenced the artistic and aesthetic elements of commercial and residential structures, in a variety of styles and forms. This presentation will examine his career and the vast legacy of architectural treasures he created for the people of Detroit.

Zumba for Kids—Sat., September 15 at 10 AM

Zumba routines and activities designed for kids 4—12. Features music and movement from around the world. Incorporates a story time. Hosted by CCPlus.

Third Annual Center Line Public Library Art Show—Fri., Sep 28 at 6 PM

This annual event is a showcase of local artists and one of the highlights of the year at the Center Line Library. Contact the library by Monday, Sep. 25th to submit your pieces for this family-friendly Community Art Show. Please register for the program, regardless of whether you are submitting art pieces, as a free chili dinner will be served.
