

General Skills:

1. Knowledge of the City of Center Line.
2. Knowledge of the desired commission/board they wish to serve on.
3. Ability to work well with others.
4. Experience with working with the public.

Board Specific Desired Skill Sets:

Beatification Commission: gardening, recycling and commitment to community service.

Board of Review: knowledge of the City of Center Line, must be a property owner in Center Line, ability to work in a team environment, commitment to community service.

Library Commission: knowledge of public libraries, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Zoning Board of Appeals: knowledge of zoning and planning, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Planning Commission: knowledge of local government, knowledge and experience with planning, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Local Officers Compensation Commission: knowledge of local government, knowledge of Mayor and Council members, work in a team environment.

Downtown Development Authority: knowledge of local government and downtown districts, past experience working for or volunteering with a DDA board, knowledge of Center Line master plan, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Construction Board: knowledge of construction, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Police and Fire Retirement Board: knowledge of public safety, knowledge or past experience working for a public safety entity, knowledge of retirement systems, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Recreation Commission: knowledge of public parks, knowledge of Center Line parks and recreation system, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.

Center Line Independence Festival Committee: Center Line resident or business owner, past experience serving on a committee in a similar capacity, knowledge of the City of Center Line, ability to work in a team environment.